LOCATION

Truro is situated in the heart of Cornwall and is the County's commercial and administrative centre, located approximately 10 miles north of Falmouth and 15 miles distant from St Austell, Redruth and Newquay. The premises are situated on Lemon Street, within Truro's prime retailing centre linking Boscawen Street to Lemon Quay. The city is the county's premier retail centre with a retail catchment population of circa 400,000 persons, enhanced by the large number of annual tourist visitors to Cornwall.

Lower Lemon Street is the main thoroughfare linking Boscawen Street and Lemon Quay. Adjacent occupiers include TUI, Lloyds Bank, Michael Spiers Jewellers incorporating Rolex, with Primark and Marks & Spencer a short distance away on Lemon Quay and The White Company, Waterstones and Caffé Nero on Boscawen Street.

DESCRIPTION

The property is a well presented and attractive ground floor shop within a Period Grade II Listed building, offering a double fronted glazed shop display leading into the main sales area and a store room and WC to the rear.
