LOCATION

The Corner Deli occupies a prominent dual aspect site on the corner of Fore Street and Chapel Terrace, approximately 100m from the harbourside in picturesque Porthleven, approximately three miles from the market town of Helston. In addition to the beautiful harbour, Porthleven offers a popular beach and a range of gift shops, guest accommodation, restaurants and access to the South West Coast Path.

DESCRIPTION

The lock up ground floor corner fronted premises have been carefully refurbished by the current proprietors offering an open-plan café and delicatessen to include a well fitted delicatessen counter, kitchen area, a wood fired pizza oven and covers for approximately 12 diners.

The premises offer a broad frontage and also include a wash area, dry store and staff wc.

THE BUSINESS

Our clients, now looking to sell due to family commitments, principally try to offer a range of Cornish products, but also include other items from around the world. In addition to the range of fine cheese and charcuterie, The Corner Deli offers dining for up to 12 covers where customers can enjoy a range of coffees, teas, cakes, a range of filled baguettes and paninis. Hot meals include wood-fired pizza, homemade soups and stews, particularly popular in the winter months.
