LOCATION

Bridge House enjoys a prime trading location between the beautiful National Trust harbour and the main car park in Boscastle which is situated on Cornwall's dramatic north coast. The property is well placed for guests to explore the South West Coast Path with miles of rugged north Cornish coast accessed nearby.

Bridge House is an ideal base for guests to explore the region which includes Tintagel, famed for Arthurian legend and Tintagel Castle, Port Isaac, home of television's Doc Martin and the picturesque harbour at Padstow. Boscastle itself has a range of local amenities and is well placed from which to explore a number of sandy coves and beaches on this beautiful stretch of coastline.

DESCRIPTION

Bridge House is an elegant, stone fronted, three-storey property which has been thoroughly refurbished and remodelled by the current proprietors to offer a delightful tea room and garden offering up to 42 covers and four en-suite guest bedrooms (one ground floor and three first floor), which enjoy particularly high ratings on Booking.com and TripAdvisor. The tea room and guest bedrooms are extremely well presented in a contemporary manner and with a nautical theme throughout. Adjacent to the tea room/dining room is a bar servery with access to an equipped kitchen with a range of appliances, coffee station and a stable style door leading to the courtyard tea garden.

A real feature of Bridge House is the spacious and comfortable owners' accommodation, located on the second floor which includes a most generous open-plan living room with a feature wood-burner, a fitted kitchen, family bathroom wc and two bedrooms with built-in wardrobes.

We are sure discerning purchasers will appreciate that Bridge House offers a unique opportunity to acquire a guest house and tea room in a desirable harbour village with superb owners' accommodation and excellent trading history.

Interested parties are welcome to view our clients' website (www.bridgehouse-boscastle.co.uk).

THE BUSINESS

Our clients trade the tea room and garden approximately nine months of the year and the guest house 10 months, with both businesses having the potential to trade all year round due to Boscastle's long visitor season, National Trust status and it's position on the South West Coast Path.

In recent years the owners have taken the opportunity to take more time off, some of which is during peak season, so by opening fully during this period, trade would definitely be increased. The Tea room and courtyard opens for coffee and cake, a range of lunches and afternoon teas. The property is also licenced. Again, the business has much scope and potential to open for evening diners or perhaps providing breakfast to non-residents for more commercially minded proprietors.

The trading profit and loss accounts for Year ending 31st March 2022/23 showed a combined turnover of £127,232 (£80,995 and £46,237 for the tea rooms and guest house respectively). During 2021 the property was remodelled to provide a further ground floor en-suite guest bedroom which has certainly enhanced the guest house trade. There is of course, the opportunity to trade fewer bedrooms should new owners wish to focus more on the tea room / food side of the business. Further letting accommodation could also be made from the large owners apartment subject to planning, should owners wish to live off site.

In the normal manner, further accounting information can be made available to seriously interested parties following a viewing appointment.
